

Grammar

Understand directions in Spanish regarding 10 key places in a town and give a more precise location of one place in relation to another. To begin to pay more attention to the changes involved with prepositions and the different articles/determiners in Spanish. Definite articles/determiners in Spanish for masculine and feminine nouns. Prepositions: examples and clear explanation of how prepositions can change in combination with these definite articles/determiners

Culture

Traditional Spanish Market (El mercado)

In Spain, traditional markets are popular places where people buy fresh food. You can find fruit, vegetables, bread, cheese, fish, meat, and olives. Markets are often lively and noisy, with stallholders calling out prices. Some famous markets include La Boquería in Barcelona and Mercado de San Miguel in Madrid. Money in Spain (La moneda)
The currency used in Spain is the Euro (€).

Key Sounds

h z g qu

h Silent letter

z Pronounced as 'th' like in zoo

g Pronounced as h

qu The U sound is silent. Q sounds like k. QUE /ke/ QUI /ki/el restaurante 	el museo 	la feria

el banco 	la cafetería 	el parque
el zoo 	la estación 	la piscina
la oficina de turismo

Key Vocabulary

Spanish	English	Spanish	English
El banco	The bank	Por favor	Please
El museo	The museum	De nada	Your welcome
El zoo	The zoo
El parque	The park	Al lado de	Next to
El restaurante	The restaurant	Enfrente de	Opposite
La cafetería	The cafe
La piscina	The pool	A la derecha	To the right
La feria	The fun faire	A la izquierda	To the left
La estación	The station	Gira
La oficina de turismo	The tourism office	Todo recto	Turn
¿Qué es esto?	What is this?	Para	Go straight
¿Es el museo?	Is the museum?		Stop
¿Qué desea?	How can I help? Talking to a child.
¿Qué deseas?	How can I help? Talking to an adult.
¿Dónde está el museo?	Where is the museum?
¿Dónde está la piscina?	Where is the pool?

ROCKALINGUA <https://rockalingua.com/>

User name Grangepark

Password morado

¿Dónde está el banco?
Where is the bank?

El banco está al lado del zoo y enfrente de la cafetería.

The bank is next to the zoo and opposite the café.